

THE FUTURE OF THE EUROZONE

EVENT SUMMARY

On October 10, 2013, the Wilson Center's Global Europe Program hosted a discussion on the future of the Eurozone. The event was moderated by Georg Mascolo, a public policy scholar and former editor-in-chief for Der Spiegel. The discussion focused on the problems the United States faces with the current government shutdown and debt ceiling crisis as well as steps the European Union must take to ensure further integration and stability for the common currency.

