The Application

1. the following individual application form
 2. a project proposal and title (not to exceed 1,000 words)
 3. a curriculum vitae, including publications (not to exceed 5 pages)
 4. two letters of recommendation
- Please note all materials must be in English.

Applications should be scanned and sent as PDF files by email (please note the individual application form is a fillable PDF file). Please contact Kennan Staff if you are unable to submit documents by email. Do not send sample publications.

THE PROJECT PROPOSAL IS THE MOST IMPORTANT ELEMENT IN THE SELECTION PROCESS. It is essential that you make your project clear to individuals outside your own field and explain its broader implications, including policy relevance.

The elements requested below should be incorporated into the text:

1. a detailed description of the topic and its policy relevance beyond the interests of the specific field of study
2. the originality of the proposed study
3. the methods or approaches to be used
4. a brief discussion of how you or your project will foster communication between the world of ideas and the world of public affairs.
5. the feasibility of completing your project in the time proposed

Letters of Recommendation

It is your responsibility to have two signed letters of reference sent directly to the Kennan Institute by the deadline. Scanned copies of signed letters sent to us by email are preferred. Your referees should be familiar with you and your work. Along with a copy of your proposal, you should also send your referees a copy of the letter of instruction, included with this packet, which they can use in preparing their comments about your proposed study and your qualifications for undertaking it. They may also contact you if you have any questions.
